Seasons Greetings

Each year at this time, we find joy and hope in our holiday season. We enjoy the warmth of our family ties and friendships; we enjoy the pleasures of giving and the blessings of the past year.

I consider it a blessing and privilege to serve with you in the Lower Mississippi Valley Division and I extend my personal thanks to all employees for a job well done. I deeply appreciate your professionalism, enthusiasm and dedication in meeting the many complex challenges of our work. As the challenges of next year develop, I know they will continue to be successfully met as in the past.

I wish each of you and your loved ones a very joyous holiday season and a New Year filled with happiness and peace.

to per party for the party

The happiest of all holiday seasons is, traditionally, a time of family reunion, when loved ones gather to share a Christmas feast and gift giving, and to greet a new year. It is also a time to pause and reflect on the past year.

Again, the personnel of the District proved their generosity and their desire to help the less fortunate. Your giving for the Combined Federal Campaign and Old Newsboy Day set new records for the District. Proof that you do care and are willing to help. I am proud of you and the District and consider it a privilege to serve with such dedicated people.

There is no time like Christmas for remembering the friendships we cherish and there are no wishes like the old tried and true ones. Merry Christmas, Happy New Year. Linda, our son, Leon, and I wish each of you and your loved ones a blessed Christmas and may the Prince of Peace bring you happiness and joy throughout the coming year.

LEON E. McKINNEY Colonel, CE District Engineer

DISTRICT DOINGS

Thanks to the efforts of our District "Old Newsboys" and some very comely "News Queens" we topped the 1976 total. More than ever before, the District people dug down deep and we totalled $312.50, well over the last year's take for the great Globe-Democrat children's charity drive. Thanks to you all and especially to the newsies.

The Holiday Season is upon us, and along with it somewhat of a slack in the talks and tours. Many clubs and organizations are having Christmas parties, and our bookings for special events show it. The brief slow-up is welcome, since the 1977 year has been a big one for District activities.

Still a few to report though...around the office here in St. Louis ...Colonel McKinney spoke to the District retiree's luncheon and told them about the work and gave them an update on the projects. The Colonel also talked to the Port Advisory Council. Bruce Moore was interviewed about dam safety by KMOX Radio. Jack Rasmussen spoke to the Federal Women's Organization and to students at SIU about Intra and Inter Government Relations. We hosted some student groups from Linn Technical College, and Bill Vasel, Ed Middleton, Dave Cusack, Jack Vizer and Mel Doernhoefer gave a super show for the Granite City High students. We also had some special programming for the National Council on Geographic Education.

Over at Locks 27 we booked a weekend tour for the Parents Without Partners, Chapter No. 663.

Locks and Dam #26 was again the scene of considerable interest and Radio KWMU-FM, the UMSL station booked an interview with Jim Fogilphol, Bill Sutton and Red Buchhold. Ken Koller spoke to the Meramec Community College Drafting and Design Class, and then he and Jim Fogilphol hosted a tour for that group. Bill Sutton spoke to an Alton High School assembly and to the Inland Waterways Committee of the Transportation Research Board.

At Carlyle, Brad Keshlear talked to the 72 member Okawville Businessmen's Association, and Sue Summers gave a program on "Careers and Marriage" for the Beta Sigma Phi as part of the Federal Women's Program. Terryl Robinson gave a couple of fine talks, first to the members of the Clinton County Legion group of 73, and then to 38 Centralia Optomists.

We are sure that there have been others who have had some programs during the month, but that's about all that have been reported at this writing. We'll try to get together a year-end wrap-up for the January issue. Meanwhile have a very Merry Christmas and the best of New Year's...and make them both safe ones.

Mother decided that 10-year-old Kathy should get something "practical" for Christmas. "Suppose we open a savings account for you?" mother suggested. Kathy was delighted.

"It's your account, darling," mother said as they arrived at the bank, "so you fill out the application."

Kathy was doing fine until she came to the space for "Name of your former bank." After a slight hesitation, she put down "piggy."

DAM SAFETY

Continued from the last "Information Bulletin." MORE on dams, dam safety, and the Corps of Engineers

EXTRACT FROM NEWS CONFERENCE BY PRESIDENT CARTER

30 NOV 1977

LOS ANGELES TIMES REPORTER: You told us at your last news conference that you would see to it that Federal inspection start promptly on private dams. You had a meeting on this subject on Monday, could you tell us what happened?

PRESIDENT CARTER: I met Monday with the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of the Army and head of Corps of Engineers. We have 9,000 high risk dams in this country which are not Federal dams. We will commence very shortly an inspection of all those dams. My present intention is to distribute in the next few days certain guidelines to be worked out with individual states, so that the Corps of Engineers personnel perhaps assisted by the Department of the Interior will begin to start inspecting the dams that we consider of most danger, about 2,000 the first year. It will cost about $7,500 per dam to inspect them on the average. We have allotted 15 million dollars for this program. In that process we will train the state personnel who will continue the inspection process after this original inspection is made. We will then continue this for two or three years until all the 9,000 dams have been inspected. This program then will be taken over by the States, because Federal Government does not have direct responsibility for these non-Federal dams.

In the meantime, of course, dams that have been built by and are controlled by the Corps of Engineers and Department of Interior are being inspected adequately, I think by the personnel in those departments because they are Federal dams.

*IN SUMMARY, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL:

- a. Begin immediately to work with all of the states to implement or improve dam safety programs;
 - b. Update the National Dam Inventory;
- c. Fund and administer the inspection of all the approximately 9,000 non-Federal dams in the high hazard potential category by virtue of their location;
- d. Fund and administer the inspection of intermediate hazard category dams on federal property; and

e. Fund and administer the inspection of a limited number of other non-Federal dams determined on a case-by-case basis, after consultation with state officials, to be in a condition presenting an immediate threat to public safety.

THE STATES WILL BE ASKED TO COOPERATE FULLY, BY:

- a. Assuring implementation of an effective dam safety program;
- b. Assisting in implementing the federally-financed dam inspections including participation in state personnel training, and performing actual dam inspections where criteria are met; and
- c. Assuring that they will use available means to take remedial actions when unsafe dams are found.

*The summary taken from "Statement by the President," 2 Dec 1977.

WITHIN THE ST. LOUIS DISTRICT

Following the President's Directive, the St. Louis District has contacted the Governor of Missouri about updating "The Inventory of Dams in Missouri," and implementating a dam safety program for the state. Also, the first "dam safety" inspection team has been formed within the District, and, if the State agrees, the first inspection will take place on 15 Dec 77.

The Man With a Tack In His Shoe

"Pray don't find fault with the man who limps or stumbles along the road, unless you have worn the shoes he wears or struggled beneath his load.

"There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt, though hidden from view; Or the burden he bears, placed on your back, might cause you to stumble, too.

"Don't sneer at the man who's down today, unless you have felt the blow that caused his fall or felt the shame that only the fallen know.

"You may be strong, but still the blows that were his, if dealt to you in the self-same way at the very same time, might cause you to stagger, too.

"Don't be too harsh with the man who sins or pelt him with words or stones, unless you are sure, yes, doubly sure that you have no sins of your own."

ANONYMOUS PHILOSOPHER

How should we approach Christmas? Surely with the desire to enter into the joy and gaiety of children; with the desire to be at peace with all men; with a high resolve to forgive all those who have injured us; with an equal determination to lift our own lives to a higher level.

WORD PROCESSING PROGRESS REPORT

One hundred fifty employees watched word processing films during the week of 21 November. We are trying to schedule more films for the week of 9 January. We are also in the process of arranging for tours to operating word processing centers in the St. Louis areas.

Construction work for the first center (ED) started on 1 December and should be completed on 15 December. Although there may be some delay in receiving equipment, the center should open in January. At that time, work will start on the second center in Room 934. Watch for position announcements.

Although we plan to set up demonstrations of the Wang 30 word processing system, a discussion of some of the equipment capabilities might be helpful.

The Wang 30 System consists of microprocessor-controlled CRT display keyboard work stations with a 24-line by 80-character screen; a dual diskette unit (a sealed system disk and a removable archive disk), capable of storing operation system software and up to 4000 pages (10,000,000 characters) of text in the main storage with an additional 120 pages (3,000,000 characters) of text on each archive diskette; and printers which operate at 40 and 200 characters per second (cps).

Operators interact with the system in a question/answer/action type mode. Other features of the system include line-end automatic word wraparound; insert/delete anywhere in a document by character, word, line, paragraph, or page; automatic word or phrase replace capability; automatic set of tab and margin formats; text transfer within a document; merge capability for automatic letter writing; and a special "glossary" feature which allows the storage and recall of commonly used words or phrases.

Special text editing capabilities include:

Automatic sub- and super script indexing.

A feature that is attractive in heavy footnoting applications for generating technical, legal, or academic copy.

Automatic title and page number printing.

Display of formatting changes.

The ability to change and view changes such as right margin justification and page breaks. This feature is especially useful when it is necessary to inspect page layouts before printer is initiated.

Status reporting.

The ability to generate hard copy or display reports on documents created, stored and printed, arranged by the particular manuscript, author or operator.

Simultaneous text input/edit and playback printout.

Photocomposer interface.

In the next bulletin, I'll present a more detailed picture of the Wang control keys and what they do. Such information is helpful to authors as well as operators.

I BELIEVE IN SANTA - DO YOU?

Do you believe in Santa Claus? You really should. A better world we'd have if everyone would.

Santa Claus is the spirit, the feeling of joy, That brightens the life of each girl and boy. To carry that thought through each day of your life, Would certainly help to lighten the strife.

The joy and the happiness of each Christmas season Is more than enough to give each of us reason, To cherish each moment we spend on this earth And remember Santa Claus and that feeling of mirth.

I believe in Santa Claus - I hope I always will. I can still see his sleigh cresting each and every hill. Good will he is bringing to me and to you.

I believe in Santa Claus, HOW ABOUT YOU?

TITLE SEARCH

The government is naturally careful about getting clear title to the land on which it builds post offices. In Louisiana, sometime ago, there was a careful investigation of titles to proposed post office sites, and although the Post Office Department had title proof back as far as 1803, it wasn't satisfied and wrote for evidence of titles even before then.

This, according to a recent Post Office Department publication, is how the lawyer answered the government

"I note your comment upon the fact the record of title sent you as applying to lands under consideration dates only from the year 1803, and your request for an extension of the record prior to that date.

Please be advised the government of the United States acquired the Territory of Louisiana, including the tract to which your inquiry applies, by purchase from the Government of France in the year 1803.

The Government of France acquired title by conquest from the Government of Spain; the Government of Spain acquired title by discovery of one Christopher Columbus, traveler and explorer, resident of Genoa, Italy, who by agreement concerning the acquisition of title to any lands discovered traveled and explored under the sponsorship and patronage of her Majesty, the Queen of Spain.

The Queen had verified her arrangement and received sanction of her title by consent of the Pope, a resident of Rome, Italy, and ex-officio representative in vice-regent of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ was a son and Heir Apparent of God. God made Louisiana.

I trust this complies with your request."

O PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. 30 Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. See Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. So Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. So You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. 🐯 Therefore be at peace with God. whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. 🌤 With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.
